

Lies Your Doctor Tells About
CHOLESTEROL

Bad Sex, Dead Dogs & Killer Bees:
Three REALLY SHORT STORIES

Esquire

JUNE 2001

MAN AT HIS BEST

Who Owns This Body

More than 100 companies hold patents, actually. And you know what? They own you, too.

AN INVESTIGATION BY WIL S. HYLTON

SPECIAL SECTION What It Feels Like...

- To Walk on the Moon
- To Be Struck by Lightning
- To Have Amnesia
- To Be Knocked Out...a Lot
- To Survive an Air Disaster
- To Have the Ebola Virus
- To Be Homer Simpson
- And Much More

$3.00
esquire.com

We're hoping that if anyone can get you to read an important story, HEIDI KLUM can 08276

0 748517 6

MELVIN JACKSON · FUNKY SKULL

» A RECORD COLLECTION TOO FUNKY FOR WORDS. ON SALE, AND ONLINE. Somewhere in Chicago right now, two fanatics at a record store are arguing over whether Miles Davis's 1963 Seven Steps to Heaven was better with the East or West Coast rhythm section. This isn't their first argument, and it won't be their last, because these guys hang out at Dusty Groove America, which has perhaps the greatest collection ever assembled of jazz, soul, funk, lounge, and everything in between—all there on vinyl or CD and waiting to go home with you. The store's stock includes about 7,000 titles and is fully accessible via its Web site (www.dustygroove.com), which is complete with recommendations for the neophyte starting his collection as well as a newsletter for the addict trying to find the unfindable. And whether you drop by the shop's take-out window (no kidding) or check out the catalog online, look for Melvin Jackson's Funky Skull on vinyl; the sleeve alone is worth the $19.99.

—CHRISTOPHER BEREND